EVAAA WE MEAN BUSINESS

Arizona's East Valley is an Aviation & Aerospace Powerhouse.

We have already created 35,000 high-paying jobs and generate $3.5 billion a year, but we cannot afford to relax.

The Valley's aerospace elite have joined forces to shape our future, and now additional leadership opportunities are available.

Together we are stronger.

Boeing. Cessna. Phoenix-Mesa Gateway Airport. The East Valley Aviation & Aerospace Alliance's membership roster reads like a Who's Who in Aviation. Dozens of the best and brightest companies and industry leaders have come together to make their voices heard.

Did You Know? The next big thing in Aerospace could happen right here!

EVAAA is actively working to ensure that Arizona is designated as a Center of Excellence for dev

“Any business with a stake in aerospace needs a seat at the EVAAA table. It’s an invaluable, one-of-a-kind resource.”

— Randy Soutiere, General Manager, Cessna Citation Service Center – Phoenix-Mesa Gateway Airport
